

Student Non-Academic Misconduct Policy

Classif Responsibilities4

- l) “Student Non-Academic Misconduct” means Student conduct that is disruptive to University efforts to maintain a positive, productive and respectful learning, working, and living environment, as described in 4.1 of the Student Non-Academic Misconduct

- 4.4 In the event of criminal or civil proceedings relating to, or arising from, the same incident as the alleged Student Non-Academic Misconduct, the Student Conduct Office will determine whether to proceed with an investigation pursuant to this policy or invoke Interim Measures.
- 4.5 Sanctions for violations of this policy are outlined in Appendix 2: Sanctions.
- 4.6 The Student Conduct Office will track all instances of Student Non-Academic Misconduct for administrative purposes.
- 4.7 If the Student Conduct Office sanctions a Student with Suspension, it may include conditions to be fulfilled before the Student returns to Academic Activities. The Suspension will appear on a Student's Transcript for the duration of the sanction
- 4.8 During the term of a Suspension, the Student continues to be enrolled in a program, and may register for courses scheduled to begin after the period of Suspension ends. The Student will only be allowed to attend such courses once all conditions of the Suspension have been fulfilled.
- 4.9 Expulsion appears permanently on the Student's Transcript.
- 4.10 Nothing in this policy prevents external organizations, including professional licensing bodies, from proceeding with criminal, administrative or civil actions independent of any University action.
- 4.11 Where required by relevant professional codes or principles of conduct, a faculty may ask the Student Conduct Office to restrict Students' participation in specific activities in light of alleged Student Non-Academic Misconduct.

