

Important Information about Allow Actions and Topics Courses

The following guidelines for handling topics courses should be followed when recording Allow Actions on the Enrollment Control component.

There are two types of courses which are assigned decimalized numbers:

Formal Topic Courses- These are assigned a permanent topic number and appear within the U of C Calendar. In the PeopleSoft system each individual topic course of

Allow Actions

SA - Registration

Since each topic has a unique

