

Students are asked to: Provide a short abstract or overview of the proposed research project, including the background information and context, purpose, objectives, and methodological approach of the project. Please use language for a broad audience.
--	--	--	--

Score Card 6 - (4-5 points) The project's originality is clearly and convincingly described. The research is a novel, creative approach to

Students are asked to: Highlight the originality, creative aspects, and significance of your research project. Be sure to describe how the research contributes to the broader scholarly field and aims to advance understanding. Please use language for a broad audience.

